An exception is made for receiving assets or benefits given in accordance with ethical and moral traditions, within the criteria and amount specified by the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC). Additionally, as per the Cabinet Resolution dated December 8, 2020, the government has approved the Revised National Reform Plan on the Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct, which includes the implementation of significant reform activities (Big Rock). One key activity, Reform Activity No. 4, focuses on developing a transparent and corruption-free Thai bureaucracy. Under Goal 1, Clause 1.1, all government agencies must declare themselves as agencies where all officials do not accept any gifts or gratuities in performing their duties (No Gift Policy). In alignment with this initiative, Bankrut Subdistrict Municipality has also declared its commitment to integrity in administration as part of its measures to improve the agency. This policy aims to ensure that all officials adhere to ethical standards alongside existing laws, regulations, and policies. It also supports the implementation of the national reform plan by fostering transparency, ethical conduct in official duties, and a culture of integrity within the organization.

To promote a culture of integrity, avoid actions that may influence decision-making, prevent discrimination, and eliminate conflicts of interest, Bankrut Subdistrict Municipality hereby establishes the following No Gift Policy for all executives, officers, staff, and personnel under its jurisdiction. This policy applies to all occasions, festivals, and special events. Before, during, and after performing duties. All executives, municipal council members, permanent municipal officers, staff and personnel under the jurisdiction of Bankrut Subdistrict Municipality shall adhere to the following guidelines for compliance.

1. Refrain from giving or receiving any gifts, gratuities, or other benefits in relation to official duties or as an exchange for performing official duties.
2. Do not request or seek to obtain any gifts, gratuities, or unlawful benefits in any form.
3. Do not allow or condone family members to give or receive gifts, gratuities, or benefits from individuals related to official work.
4. Avoid conflicts of interest in the performance of duties and refrain from granting special favors to oneself or close associates that may cause damage to the government or involve corruption.
5. Any official found violating this policy will face strict disciplinary action by Bankrut Subdistrict Municipality.

In cases where it is unavoidable to accept gifts, the acceptance must strictly follow the Prime Minister's Office Regulations on Giving and Receiving Gifts by State Officials B.E. 2544 (2001) and the NACC's 2020 Announcement on Ethical Acceptance of Assets and Benefits by State Officials.

This announcement is hereby made public for strict compliance.
